

The Invitation

Phil Vanderveen. Taken from John 14

INTRO: C G/C F

VERSE 1

C G/C F

Poor one, come – to the One who is near to the needy

C G/C F

Broken, fall – in the arms of the One who can heal

C/E F C /B A-

Troubled, trust in God - and count on his promise of presence

D- G C Csus C

He is not unaware wherever we are

Restoring love, from the One who is perfectly willing

Here and now, he is ready to pour out his gifts

For He is good, so good, and we can perfectly trust him

The belief in his Word's all we'll ever require

CHORUS

F C F A-

Hallelujah, praise the Lord For His Name is to be praised

D- C/E F F/G C

In the night or in the day Hallelujah, praise the Lord

VERSE 2

Doubting Heart, let him calm the confusion within you

Barren Soul, let him fill you in ways that amaze

When we cry and confess, he will wash out our venomous veins

Can you hear him now say- "Come, don't be afraid"

CHORUS

BRIDGE

C G/B A- Gsus G (/F-/E)

He is ready to hear, ready to do Willingly open to heal and renew

D- C/E A- Gsus G

Ready to give, ready to save Trusting in him, we can joyfully say...

CHORUS 2

Hallelujah, praise the Lord to the TRUTH, the LIFE, the WAY

In the night or in the day Hallelujah, praise the Lord

END

F F/G C

Hallelujah, praise the Lord
